Equal Opportunity Tasmania

Equal Opportunity Tasmania is an independent body responsible for Tasmania's anti-discrimination law.

Our responsibilities are outlined in the Anti-Discrimination Act 1998.

Our aim

Our aim is to foster a society that is free of discrimination and harassment.

We do this by promoting acceptable and inclusive behaviors in our community and by helping to resolve differences when problems arise.

We believe everyone has the right to be treated fairly and to have the same opportunity as others to engage in public life and employment free from discrimination and harassment.

Our vision is to create a community where everyone is valued and respected.

What we do

- We inform and educate people about their rights and responsibilities under discrimination law
- We promote practices that are non-discriminatory and free of bias
- We help people resolve disputes about discrimination, sexual harassment and other unlawful behaviours
- We provide policy advice on programs, practices and laws to promote compliance with the Anti-Discrimination Act

How can we help?

- We can help people resolve complaints about discrimination, sexual harassment and other unlawful behaviour
- We provide free and confidential information about rights and responsibilities through our enquiry line
- We deliver training and awareness sessions
- We can provide free materials including brochures, posters and postcards to help raise awareness of rights and responsibilities
- We provide information about discrimination and other unlawful behaviour on our website and on our Facebook page
